Energy Reform in Mexico: EY Oil & Gas Webcast

EY offers a complimentary on-demand webinar about Mexico's 2014 tax reform and how it impacts oil and gas companies looking to operate in and with Mexico.

The webinar addresses the key proposals, the impacts on the oil and gas industry and how to approach this new opportunity.

According to the EY website, the webinar covers:

- Mexican energy and fiscal reforms and what these mean for the sector
- Mexico business environment versus other energy hubs
- Transactional and tax overview of operating in Mexico
- Opportunities and issues for oil and gas industry participants
