

Enforce Arbitration Agreement or Waive Right to Arbitrate Trade Secret Misappropriation Claims

A recent federal court denied an employer's motion to compel arbitration, finding that it waived its right to arbitration by engaging in litigation.

George L. Kanabe, a partner in the San Francisco office of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, discusses three key lessons the ruling provides for plaintiff-employers.

Kanabe reports that the ruling noted, "[t]here is no other reasonable interpretation of plaintiff's untimely demand for arbitration than as a deliberate tactic to test the judicial waters but then, when those waters did not flow the direction plaintiff intended, to change routes in hopes of finding a different current."
