

E-Discovery Company Everlaw Named a 'Best and Brightest Company to Work For'

The National Association for Business Resources has named Everlaw one of the Bay Area's Best and Brightest Companies to Work For. The award recognizes companies that excel at employee relations, use innovation to motivate employees, implement creative compensation programs, and more. The ediscovery company was recognized for its employee engagement and company culture.

The "101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For" is a national program with annual award galas in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Houston, Milwaukee, San Diego and San Francisco. The legal technology company won the honor after an independent research firm's evaluation of its compensation, benefits and employee solutions; employee enrichment, engagement and retention; employee education and development; recruitment, selection and orientation; employee achievement and recognition; communication and shared vision; diversity and inclusion; work-life balance; community initiatives and strategic company performance.

"We are honored to be recognized for our unique company culture and values," said Everlaw CEO AJ Shankar. "Our team is the most important factor in achieving our mission to improve litigation, so we work hard to make a great experience for each team member. We're proud to bring this approach and this recognition to the legal field."
