Gartner Names 2015 E-Discovery Software Leaders

Gartner's recently published 2015 Magic Quadrant for E-Discovery Software details the results of the company's research and analysis of 20 vendors in the e-discovery software field. Exterro has made the report available through its website.

The report analyzes the landscape of the e-discovery software market and factors driving market growth and technology advancement.

It also discusses which vendors were positioned as leaders for their completeness of vision and ability to execute.

Download the report.