

Fabian Walters Bolsters Parker Poe's Public Finance and Corporate Services in Washington, D.C.

Washington, D.C. – Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein LLP is pleased to announce that Fabian Walters has joined the firm as a partner in Washington, D.C. Fabian concentrates his practice on public finance and corporate law, and he is deeply involved in the greater D.C. community.

Fabian has significant experience advising on public finance transactions involving tax-exempt and taxable debt, infrastructure and real estate transactions, affordable housing and community development finance, and other complex finance transactions in which he counsels issuers, banks, other institutional lenders, developers, and public and private borrowers.

In addition, Fabian has extensive experience with U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules and regulations, as well as general corporate advice. He has also assisted nonprofit and faith-based organizations, foundations, and professional associations with all of their legal needs, from formation to ongoing governance counsel.

Fabian serves on the Advisory Council on Business Law for the Washington College of Law at American University. He is a former board member of Itineris, a nonprofit that serves adults on the autism spectrum in the Baltimore region. He is also a former board member of the Monumental City Bar Foundation. It is the philanthropic arm of the Monumental City Bar Association, which has a long history of advocating for African American attorneys and interests in Baltimore.

Additionally, Fabian has co-chaired the Diversity Committee for the Maryland State Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section. He has also served on the board of trustees for the Baltimore Collegiate School for Boys.

"We are thrilled to have Fabian join us as part of our strategic growth in the nation's capital," Managing Partner Tom Griffin says. "He strengthens our full-service office in Washington, D.C., and our nationally ranked Public Finance Group. He also epitomizes our firm's commitment to serving our communities. Clients across industries and our footprint will benefit from Fabian joining our team."
