

Family Wealth Attorney Jake Pollack Joins Shackelford, Bowen, McKinley & Norton

Experienced Dallas attorney's practice incorporates family wealth and business advisory services

DALLAS – Estate planning and probate attorney Jake Pollack has joined the Dallas office of Shackelford, Bowen, McKinley & Norton, LLP.

Pollack's practice includes wills, trusts and estates, wealth planning and preservation, business succession planning, legacy planning, and probate and estate administration. His practice also includes business administration and transactions. He joins the firm from Bell Nunnally & Martin LLP.

The addition of Pollack is just the latest for Shackelford. In the past two months, the firm has added 12 entertainment, construction litigation, intellectual property, M&A, commercial litigation and transactional attorneys in Texas and Tennessee.

An Accredited Estate Planner with the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils, Pollack regularly assists clients in sophisticated estate planning, family-owned business transactions and estate and trust litigation. He works with clients to protect their assets and business interests; prepare for death, disability, and financial crisis; avoid unnecessary taxation; and maximize business and financial opportunities. He was recognized among the Best Lawyers in Dallas by D Magazine in 2018.

He is a former Chair of the Ronald McDonald House of Dallas board of directors and member of the Children's Medical Center Foundation board of directors.

Shackelford, Bowen, McKinley & Norton, LLP is a full-service law firm with attorneys and offices in Dallas, Houston, Frisco, Fort Worth, and Austin, Texas; Nashville, Tennessee; and Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Learn more about the firm at <http://www.shackelford.law>.