

Fanatics Appoints General Counsel

“Fanatics announced the appointment of its first General Counsel to oversee its legal affairs worldwide, including commerce, collectibles, betting and gaming, and NFT’s. We are thrilled to welcome Ben-Yishai as our new general counsel and member of our growing executive leadership team for the global,” reports SGB Media in their blog.

“Fanatics CFO. Yishai is an extremely well-respected legal executive who brings more than two decades of experience negotiating and executing strategic M&A deals, deep public company experience, knowledge of the global legal landscape and high ethical standards to Fanatics as we continue to expand the business to support sports fans,”

Read the article.