

2 Farrell Fritz Lawyers Receive New York State Bar Association Appointments

Two Farrell Fritz lawyers have received appointments to the New York State Bar Association Commercial & Federal Litigation Section.

Effective June 1, 2015, James M. Wicks will begin his one-year term as chair of the NYSBA's Commercial & Federal Litigation Section. Concurrently, Jeremy M. Corapi will become the section's secretary.

Wicks, an East Setauket, NY, resident, is a commercial litigation partner. He also serves as co-chair of the Ethics & Professionalism Committee of the NYSBA's Section on Commercial & Federal Litigation. He is a contributor to the firm's New York Commercial Division Case Compendium blog. He earned his J.D. degree from St. John's University School of Law and his B.A. degree from Wheeling College.

Corapi, a New York, NY, resident, is a commercial litigation associate. He earned his J.D. degree from Fordham University School of Law and his B.S. degree from New York University.