The Washington Post is reporting that federal prosecutors investigating President Trump's personal lawyer Michael Cohen are poised to receive on Wednesday 1 million files from three of his cellphones seized last month, according to a filing submitted to the court Tuesday night by special master Barbara Jones.

Jones said investigators have already been given access to nearly 300,000 pieces of potential evidence seized from Cohen's office and residences in an April raid, according to reporters Philip Bump and Mark Berman.

Cohen's attorneys initially said thousands of the seized documents might be covered by attorney-client privilege, but Jones noted that so far only 252 items have been flagged by Cohen's or President Trump's attorneys as privileged.
