Fenwick Relocates San Francisco Office to One Front Street

Fenwick has relocated its San Francisco office to One Front Street, occupying floors 31 through 33 in downtown San Francisco. The relocation marks the law firm’s continued presence in the city.

The new office features open-concept workspaces and adaptable meeting rooms. Its central location provides proximity to public transit, dining, and other urban amenities.

This move follows a series of expansions by Fenwick over the past year. In April, the firm opened a Boston office with a team of more than 20 professionals to bolster its life sciences, intellectual property, and corporate practices. In December, Fenwick also moved its Washington, D.C., office to support growth in regulatory, antitrust, and investigations work.

These developments are part of a broader strategy to enhance the firm’s national platform and expand legal support for clients at all stages of development.
