

Updates on Design Patent Law: The Hague Agreement and U.S. Design Patent Enforcement

Fitch, Even, Tabin & Flannery LLP will hold a complimentary webinar, "Updates on Design Patent Law: The Hague Agreement and U.S. Design Patent Enforcement," presented by Jon A. Birmingham and Conor S. Hunt. The webinar will be Wednesday, Sept. 30, 2015, at 9 am PDT / 10 am MDT / 11 am CDT / 12 noon EDT.

In May 2015, U.S. patent laws were amended to implement provisions of the Geneva Act of the Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs. U.S.-based applicants can now seek design protection in over 60 countries by filing a single international design application.

The first half of the webinar will cover the following:

- An overview of the system under the Hague Agreement
- Filing requirements under this system
- Cost comparison with traditional foreign filing processes

The webinar will continue with a discussion of enforcement of design patents in the U.S., including these topics:

- Recent court decisions involving design patents
- The impact of recent design patent cases on patent prosecution

Speakers will be Fitch Even attorneys Jon A. Birmingham and Conor S. Hunt. For 15 years, Birmingham has represented a wide range of clients in intellectual property litigation, opinion matters, and complex patent prosecution matters, including the protection of design patents. Hunt focuses his practice on domestic and international patent prosecution involving mechanical and e-commerce technologies, as well as on patent evaluation, portfolio management, product clearance, and legal opinions.

CLE credit has been approved for California, Illinois, and Nebraska. Other states may also award CLE credit upon attendee request. There is no fee to attend, but registration is required
