

Five Ward, Smith & Hill Attorneys Honored in 2020 Texas Super Lawyers Listing

Founder Johnny Ward named to Top 100 in Dallas-Fort Worth for intellectual property litigation

LONGVIEW, Texas – Texas Super Lawyers honors five attorneys from trial firm Ward, Smith & Hill in the 2020 edition of its top Texas attorneys listing.

An honoree since 2003, firm founder Johnny Ward has been recognized for his work in intellectual property litigation and included among the Top 100 attorneys in Dallas-Fort Worth.

Name partner Wesley Hill, Of Counsel T. John Ward and partner Chad Everingham also earned honors for their representation of clients in intellectual property litigation, with name partner Bruce Smith earning recognition for his expertise working with plaintiffs in personal injury disputes.

Thomson Reuters publishes the annual list in the November editions of Texas Monthly and Super Lawyers magazines. Texas Super Lawyers highlights the state's top attorneys after a rigorous selection process based on peer nominations and extensive editorial research is completed. The full list is available at <http://www.superlawyers.com>.