Foley Attorney Galen Mason Named to Crain's Chicago '40 Under 40'

Special counsel Galen Mason of Foley & Lardner has been named to Crain's Chicago "40 Under 40" list. The publication annually recognizes Chicago professionals under the age of 40 who are leaders in business, government, philanthropy and the arts.

Mason was recognized for his ongoing work and commitment to Catapult Chicago, a non-profit working space for digital start-up companies that he helped co-found in 2012. As a founding sponsor of Catapult, Foley has supported the group's growth through leased office space and access to the firm's business network and Foley Ventures. The firm's lawyers also provide counsel and free office hours for Catapult's companies.
