

Former Tulare Hospital Attorney Faces State Bar Complaint

“Directors of the Tulare Local Health Care District (TLHCD) voted ... to file a formal complaint against their former attorney with the California State Bar Association,” reports Dave Adalian in Valley Voice.

“‘This is a mechanism to remove a bad apple from the profession,’ said TLHCD director Xavier Avila before the board voted unanimously to approve making the complaint. ‘If you’re driving down the road and you see an obstruction, a branch laying in the way, you remove it.’”

“Avila was describing the TLHCD’s former general counsel Bruce Greene.”
