

Fox Promotes Claudia Teran to General Counsel, Adding to Existing Sports Duties

Fox Corp. has expanded the role of Fox Sports general counsel Claudia Teran, giving her the new title of executive vice president and corporate general counsel.

Deadline reports that Teran will continue to serve as Fox Sports general counsel. “In her sports role, Teran has played a key part in rights negotiations over the years, including major deals for NFL Thursday Night Football, Major League Baseball and the FIFA World Cup for both men and women,” according to Deadline’s Dade Hayes.

Teran was a corporate transactional attorney before joining Fox.

Read the Deadline article.