

29 Partnership Promotions and 37 Promoted to Counsel at Hogan Lovells

Hogan Lovells has announced the promotion of 29 new partners globally, effective Jan. 1, 2017. They will join more than 800 partners in offices across Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, the Middle East, and the Americas.

Each of Hogan Lovells' five practice groups is represented in the 2017 promotion round:

- Eight in Corporate (including in Corporate, Real Estate, and Tax)
- Eight in Litigation & Arbitration (including in Investigations, White Collar and Fraud)
- Five in Government Regulatory (including in Competition, Privacy & Cybersecurity, Health and FDA/Medical Devices)
- Five in Finance (in Banking, International Debt Capital Markets and Infrastructure, Energy, Resources and Projects)
- Three in Intellectual Property

The jurisdictional spread reflects the global nature of Hogan Lovells' practice:

- 19 in the United States & Latin America: Denver, Mexico City, Miami, New York, Northern Virginia, Washington, D.C.
- Nine in Europe: Dusseldorf, London, Munich, Paris
- One in Asia: Shanghai

In addition to the 29 new partners, 37 new appointments to the role of counsel have been made.

CEO Steve Immelt said:

“Supporting and growing our internal talent pipeline is a key priority for Hogan Lovells and integral to offering our clients the highest quality service. It gives me great pleasure to promote from within and recognise the hard work and dedication of these individuals, who represent the quality, breadth, and depth of Hogan Lovells around the world, which no other law firm can match. I congratulate all those who were promoted and wish them every success as they continue their career with us.”
