

Amy M. Stewart Appointed Division V. Director for ABA Section of Litigation

Amy M. Stewart, founding partner of Stewart Bradbury PLLC, was recently appointed as 2018-19 Division V. Director for the ABA's Section of Litigation.

In her new role, she will oversee the work of the substantive litigation subcommittees, including Business Torts and Unfair Competition, Commercial Litigation, Employment and Labor Law, Products Liability, Mass Torts, bankruptcy, Securities Litigation.

Additionally, Stewart is the Co-Chair of the 2018 ABA Section of Litigation's Professional Success Summit set for Houston Nov. 14-16, 2018. The Professional Success Summit is focused on providing successful litigation, trial, and business development strategies for racially diverse minority litigators.