

Clayton Bailey, Alex Brauer Recognized Among State's Top Business Litigators

Dallas attorneys Clayton Bailey and Alex Brauer, co-founders of Bailey Brauer, have been selected among the state's top business litigators in the 2019 edition of the Texas Super Lawyers legal guide.

One of The National Trial Lawyers' Top 100 Texas Civil Plaintiff Lawyers, Bailey has a national trial and appellate practice. He represents clients involved in complex tort and other commercial cases, corporate litigation and in putative class actions and mass action lawsuits in federal and state courts. A frequent author, he contributed to sections of the American Bar Association's recently released Agriculture and Food Handbook. This is his ninth Texas Super Lawyers selection.

In a release, the firm said Brauer represents companies and high net worth individuals involved in high-stakes business litigation involving claims of fraud, tortious interference, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, conspiracy, deceptive trade practices, trade secret theft, RICO, and antitrust violations. Brauer has successfully defended clients facing class and collective actions and represented plaintiffs and defendants in complex tort and negligence cases. The 2019 selection is the third for Brauer.

Texas Super Lawyers is published by Thomson Reuters, appearing in Texas Monthly and Super Lawyers magazines. Selection is limited to no more than 5 percent of Texas attorneys and is based on a statewide survey of lawyers and extensive editorial review.

