

Arent Fox Adds Boston Partner Anne Murphy

Anne Murphy has joined Arent Fox LLP as a partner in the firm's Health Care practice.

In a release, the firm said Murphy joins the Boston office, where she will work as an advisor on mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, and significant strategic projects for health care systems, academic medical centers, and health care service organizations.

The firm said Murphy manages transactional, regulatory, litigation, risk, compliance, and accreditation issues. Additionally, she counsels clients on Enterprise Risk Management, joint ventures, and emerging health care delivery models in areas such as value-based purchasing, behavioral health, aging in place, health information and technology, and telemedicine.

Prior to joining Arent Fox, Murphy was a partner in the Boston office of a New England law firm and a senior vice president and general counsel at a large academic medical center in Chicago. She also previously served in both private and public sector positions, including as chief counsel to the Illinois Department of Public Health.
