Barbara Rosenblatt Joins Freeborn’s Insurance and Reinsurance Practice in Richmond

Barbara E. Rosenblatt has joined Freeborn & Peters LLP in Richmond, Va., as an associate in the firm’s Litigation Practice Group and as a member of the Insurance and Reinsurance Industry Team.

Last month, Freeborn’s Richmond office relocated to larger, renovated space in the Riverfront Plaza’s west tower downtown to accommodate ongoing expansion.

In a release, the firm said Rosenblatt focuses her practice on auto insurance defense litigation.

Prior to joining Freeborn, Rosenblatt served as a public defender for 10 years in Richmond and Newport News, Va. During her tenure, she ran the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Office, supervised junior attorneys preparing for cases, and tried cases in courts including the Circuit Court, General District Court and Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. She also appeared before the Virginia Court of Appeals.

Rosenblatt received her J.D. from William and Mary School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts from Indiana University.
