

Blank Rome Relocates New York Office to 1271 Avenue of the Americas

Blank Rome LLP has completed the relocation of its New York office from the Chrysler Building to the recently redesigned, iconic 1271 Avenue of the Americas, formerly known as the Time & Life Building, located in Rockefeller Center in Midtown Manhattan. The firm occupies 138,000 square feet of office space on floors 15 through 17, as well as part of the 14th floor.

“We established our New York presence in 2000 when we combined with Tenzer Greenblatt LLP—a firm with New York roots dating back to 1937. Collectively, we operated out of the Chrysler Building for 40 years,” said Grant S. Palmer, Blank Rome’s managing partner and CEO. “With 150 attorneys, our New York office is one of our largest locations and has experienced sustained growth over the past two decades.”
