Campbell Conroy & O'Neil Member Joins International Association of Defense Counsel

The International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) has announced that Michelle I. Schaffer, a member at Campbell Conroy & O'Neil, P.C., in Boston, has accepted an invitation to join the IADC, the preeminent invitation-only global legal organization for attorneys who represent corporate and insurance interests.

The firm said Schaffer focuses her trial practice on product liability, premises liability, pharmaceutical and medical devices, and toxic torts/mass torts defense matters.

Schaffer is the immediate past president of the Massachusetts chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates. In addition, she is a past president of the Massachusetts Defense Lawyers Association and the Massachusetts chapter of the Federal Bar Association. She has served as a member of the Massachusetts Joint Bar Committee on Judicial Appointments and currently serves on the Massachusetts Bar Association Civil Litigation Section Council. She is a former chair of the Defense Research Institute's Lawyers Professionalism and Ethics Committee.

Schaffer received her J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts (magna cum laude) from Tufts University.
