

Chambers USA and Chambers Global Rank Redgrave Attorneys for E-Discovery

Redgrave LLP announced that three of the firm's attorneys have been ranked nationally for Litigation: E-Discovery in Chambers USA 2019, a leading resource guide for businesses seeking external legal counsel in the United States. In addition, three attorneys also are ranked in Chambers Global 2019 for Litigation: E-Discovery – USA.

Jonathan M. Redgrave, managing partner of the firm, is again ranked as the only “star” practitioner in the area, which Chambers awards to lawyers “with exceptional recommendations in their field.” Chambers USA's editorial says:

Kevin F. Brady, of counsel at the firm, is ranked in Band 2 in the most recent USA listings.

Redgrave partner Karin S. Jenson is ranked in Band 4 in the most recent USA listing.

Redgrave partner Christopher Q. King is ranked in Band 4 in the most recent Global listing.

London-based Chambers and Partners annually ranks the leading U.S. firms and attorneys based on in-depth research and interviews with clients and peers. Chambers ranks individual lawyers in bands 1 (highest) to 6, with all band rankings considered to be a significant achievement. Chambers assesses attorneys on attributes most valued by clients, including technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial astuteness, diligence, and commitment.
