Dallas Attorney Clayton Bailey Named Benchmark Litigation Star

Trial and appellate attorney Clayton Bailey, co-founder of Dallas-based litigation boutique Bailey Brauer PLLC, has earned recognition for a fourth consecutive year as a "Local Litigation Star" in the Benchmark Litigation guide to the nation's top lawyers.

Bailey was named among the leading attorneys in Texas for his general commercial litigation practice. He was also selected for his professional liability practice, competition and securities-based litigation and his international arbitration work. The 2018 edition of Benchmark Litigation was compiled after months of peer review, client-based research and a review of attorney casework.

"Earning recognition from Benchmark Litigation is certainly an honor, not only for me, but also for our firm," said Bailey. "It serves as a strong indicator that our commitment to our clients has not gone unnoticed."

Bailey was also recently selected to join the invitation-only National Trial Lawyers' Top 100 civil plaintiff lawyers in Texas. Membership is extended to only those attorneys who exemplify superior qualifications, trial results and professional leadership.

Founded in 2013, Bailey Brauer has won multiple individual and firm recognitions from BTI Consulting Group, the National Law Journal, The Best Lawyers in America, Texas Super Lawyers and D Magazine.
