Dominica C. Anderson Elected President and Board Chair of Professional BusinessWomen of California

Duane Morris LLP trial partner Dominica C. Anderson has been elected president and board chair of Professional BusinessWomen of California.

Anderson is managing partner of Duane Morris' Las Vegas office and practices in both the firm's Las Vegas and San Francisco offices. She is a member of the firm's Executive Committee and the governing Partners Board, and serves as vice chair of the Duane Morris Women's Impact Network for Success Steering Committee.

In a release, the firm said Anderson has more than 30 years of experience in high-stakes commercial litigation, including representing insurance companies in complex insurance coverage cases, CGL and D&O throughout the United States, and works with numerous clients to resolve issues abroad. She represents businesses in complex contract disputes; unfair competition; business interference; false advertising; securities; antitrust; defamation; e-commerce and intellectual property issues; domain name disputes; and trademark, trade secrets and copyright issues. Anderson also serves as a team lead for the Duane Morris Fashion, Retail and Consumer Branded Products Industry Group. She advises and represents iconic and budding fashion designers and related companies and retail entities.

Anderson is a 1986 cum laude graduate of the University of San Francisco Law School and a graduate, with high honors, of the University of California at Berkeley, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She is a member of the American Bar Association and the National Association of Women Lawyers.
