

New Partner Matthew S. Parrish Joins FisherBroyles in Cincinnati Office

FisherBroyles, LLP announced that Matthew S. Parrish has joined the firm's Cincinnati office as a partner.

"With Matt's arrival, we are continuing to build a strong national corporate and commercial transactions practice with strength in mergers and acquisitions and capital market transactions," said Edmund F. Brown, managing partner of the FisherBroyles Ohio offices in Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland. "We are excited to have Matt join the firm and expand the Cincinnati office. Matt is a highly experienced business lawyer whose practice has tremendous synergies with our strategic growth priorities."

In a release, the firm said Parrish advises clients in the consumer products, advanced manufacturing, and technology industries, among others, on merger and acquisition, debt and equity financing, and a broader range of corporate issues. In addition, Parrish has experience advising clients in the sports and entertainment industry on issues relating to the monetization and exploitation of their brands and other intellectual property assets.

Before joining FisherBroyles, Parrish was a partner in the Cincinnati office of Calfee, Halter & Griswold. He also is a past in-house counsel with Kao USA, Inc., a global premium beauty care products company.

Parrish is admitted to practice law in Ohio; Kentucky; Washington, D.C.; and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio. He has been named a leading lawyer by Cincy Magazine each year since 2013, and in 2012 was recognized by Newsweek magazine as a leading entertainment lawyer.
