

Foley Announces New International Network of Corporate Compliance and Anti-Corruption Law Firms

A new international alliance of law firms and lawyers called the Concilium Global Compliance, Investigations & Defense Network officially launched today, offering cross-border representation in matters involving corporate compliance, internal investigations and government enforcement defense, according to an announcement by Foley.

The Concilium Network can help multinational businesses find counsel qualified to provide representation across national boundaries, Foley said in a release.

Concilium Network currently counts 15 international law firms as members and intends to expand to other jurisdictions, subject to its firm-vetting process. The firms currently part of the Concilium Network include:

- Advokatfirmaet Selmer (Norway)
- Blake, Cassels & Graydon (Canada)
- Creel Garcia-Cuéllar Aiza y Enriquez (Mexico)
- FieldFisher (UK)
- FeldensMadruga (Brazil)
- Foley & Lardner (U.S.A.)
- J. Chan, Yip, So & Partners (China)
- Kammeradvokaten / Poul Schmith (Denmark)
- Navacelle Law (France)
- Panag & Babu (India)
- Posse Herrera Ruiz (Colombia)
- Preda Del Puerto & Asociados (Paraguay)
- Raczkowski Paruch (Poland)

- Schellenberg Wittmer (Switzerland)
- SvS Rechtsanwälte (Germany)