

Thomas F. Bush Joins Freeborn as Partner

Thomas F. Bush has joined the Freeborn & Peters LLP's Chicago office as a partner and member of the Litigation Practice Group and Insurance/Reinsurance Industry Group.

"We are enthusiastic about welcoming Tom to Freeborn and to our team serving the insurance and reinsurance industry," said Freeborn's Co-Managing Partner Michael A. Moynihan. "Tom brings to the firm decades of experience handling diverse litigation and other matters for insurers and reinsurers."

In a release, the firm said Bush has experience in complex litigation involving antitrust, insurance and reinsurance matters. He has been involved in the representation of lawsuits and arbitrations for global reinsurers in disputes arising from large-scale losses. In addition, he represents and counsels insurance companies and investment firms on antitrust compliance and on competition issues arising in mergers and acquisitions.

Most recently, Bush was a partner and co-chair of the Antitrust Litigation Practice Group at Locke Lord LLP in Chicago. He served as a law clerk to Chief Judge Collins J. Seitz of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. Mr. Bush earned his J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School and his Bachelor of Arts (magna cum laude) from Dartmouth College.
