

Hogan Lovells Adds Real Estate Finance Lawyer Ana Tenzer in Denver

Ana Lazo Tenzer has joined Hogan Lovells as a partner in the Corporate practice in Denver. Tenzer, who focuses on real estate finance, will be a member of the firm's national real estate team.

Tenzer previously was with Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, where she served as chair of the firm's Finance & Lending Group, and before that as co-chair of the firm's Real Estate Department. She began her legal career at Paul Hastings in New York.

In a release, the firm said Tenzer represents lenders and borrowers, including investment banks, private equity firms and their portfolio companies, institutional investors and insurance companies. She represents major companies in their mortgage and asset portfolios, structured loan and credit facilities, single and multi-property commercial mortgage loans, mezzanine loans, preferred equity and EB-5 equity and debt transactions.

Tenzer earned her JD from the New York University School of Law, and her undergraduate degree, with the highest honors, from Barnard College at Columbia University.
