

Holland & Hart Adds Civil Litigator Kimberly Brunelle Willis in Denver

Kimberly Brunelle Willis has joined Holland & Hart's Commercial Litigation practice as of counsel in Denver.

In a release, the firm said Brunelle Willis represents clients facing high-stakes complex civil litigation in federal and state trial and appellate courts; enforcement proceedings, including with the DOJ, SEC, CFTC and state agencies; and inquiries by self-regulatory agencies, including FINRA and the NFA.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Brunelle Willis practiced for six years as a litigation and enforcement attorney at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP in New York. She also served as a law clerk to the Honorable William G. Young of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

Brunelle Willis received her J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law at Yeshiva University and earned her B.A. from Boston College. She is admitted to practice in New York and her practice in Colorado is temporarily authorized pending admission under C.R.C.P. 205.6. She is also admitted to the bars of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.
