

Holland & Hart Adds Government Contracts Attorney Shaun Kennedy

Holland & Hart announced that Shaun Kennedy has joined the firm's Government Contracts practice as of counsel in Denver and Washington, D.C.

In a release, the firm said Kennedy has experience in federal and state government contracts matters, guiding clients in general counseling, complex internal investigations, and representation in high-stakes bid protests and claims litigation.

He has experience in private practice and working in-house for aerospace and defense contractors and counsels clients on contract claims and disputes, bid protests, contract formation and administration matters, internal investigations, and government subpoenas.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Kennedy practiced nine years as corporate counsel and in private practice. He also served as a law clerk to the Loren A. Smith of the United States Court of Federal Claims.

The firm said Kennedy currently holds a Top Secret security clearance. He received his J.D. from American University, Washington College of Law and earned his B.B.A. from the University of Kentucky. He is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Colorado.
