

Labor & Employment Partner and Litigator Gordon Berger Joins FisherBroyles in Atlanta

Gordon M. Berger has joined FisherBroyles, LLP as a partner in the firm's Atlanta office and Labor & Employment and Litigation practice groups.

In a release, the firm said Berger has more than 25 years of experience representing corporations in litigation and preventive measures involving employment matters, contracts and commercial disputes. He has experience in HR outsourcing, as well as professional employer organizations (PEOs) and alternative staffing organizations or administrative services organizations (ASOs).

Prior to joining FisherBroyles, Berger was a partner at Ford & Harrison LLP. He also previously practiced at Wagner, Johnston & Rosenthal, P.C.

Berger received his J.D. from Emory School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Rochester.