

Littleter Expands Indy Office with Associate Hire

Peter T. Tschanz has joined Littleter as an associate in the Indianapolis office. He joins from Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP.

“Peter has an impressive background representing management in a variety of industries on their most pressing employment law issues,” said Alan L. McLaughlin, Indianapolis office managing shareholder. “His experience and skillset will add further depth to our service to regional and national clients and we are excited to welcome him to our team.”

In a release, the firm said Tschanz counsels companies on a wide-range of issues that arise out of the employer-employee relationship, including hiring, performance management and termination issues; wage and hour compliance; and development of noncompetition and trade secret agreements. He also represents employers in litigated disputes, arbitrations and before administrative agencies, and on compliance with federal and state employment laws, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Family and Medical Leave Act.

Tschanz received his J.D., magna cum laude, from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law and his B.A. from Loyola University Chicago. He has been recognized as a Rising Star for Employment & Labor by Indiana Super Lawyers each year from 2012 to 2019 and was selected for inclusion in the 2019 edition of Best Lawyers in America for Employment Law – Management.
