

Miller & Chevalier Adds Government Contracts Lawyer from the Department of the Navy

Miller & Chevalier Chartered has added Abigail (Abi) Stokes as counsel in the firm's Government Contracts practice. Stokes joins the firm after almost 10 years as a first-chair government contracts attorney for the United States Department of the Navy.

While she was with the Navy, Stokes had responsibility for numerous, high-value programs and was awarded an Acquisition Excellence award, as well as the U.S. Navy's Meritorious Civilian Service Award, the firm said in a news release. Her experience includes litigating numerous bid protests and counseling on statutory and regulatory compliance issues throughout the procurement lifecycle.

Stokes earned a J.D. from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and a B.S. from the University of California, Davis. She began her legal career as a law clerk to the Honorable Alex R. Munson of the U.S. District Court for the Northern Mariana Islands.
