Natalie Friend Wilson Promoted to Langley & Banack Shareholder

Natalie Friend Wilson has been promoted to shareholder at Langley & Banack, Inc. and will lead the firm's cybersecurity practice, as well as continue to practice in bankruptcy and litigation.

The firm said Wilson represents debtors, creditors, and bankruptcy trustees in complex insolvency proceedings, including related litigation and appeals. She also counsels clients on privacy and data protection, data breach response, cybersecurity and general cyber-contracting matters, as head of the Firm's Cybersecurity, Data Protection and Privacy Practice Group.

Langley & Banack's Cybersecurity team assists clients with drafting and implementation of cyber-security and general incident response plans and structures, enhanced compliance, and governance policies and protocols, the firm said in a release. They also advise financial institutions and industry clients in the drafting and negotiation of their website development, website hosting, SaaS agreements and other internet and data-based service agreements. As such, the practice group assists organizations to manage rapidly evolving privacy threats and mitigate the potential loss and misuse of information assets.

Wilson is active in the Military Spouse JD Network, a bar association for lawyers married to members of the armed forces. She is active in the local Air Force community and currently Key Spouse Mentor for the 836th Cyberspace Operations Squadron.

Wilson holds a B.A. from St. Mary's College of Maryland, summa cum laude, and a J.D. from the University of Hawai’i, William S. Richardson School of Law, where she graduated cum laude.

She has been honored as a Professional “On the Rise” by Texas Lawyer Magazine (2018), San Antonio Business Journal’s 40 Under 40 (2016), and the Belva Lockwood Outstanding Young Lawyer by the Bexar County Women’s Bar Foundation (2014).
