

Neal Gerber Eisenberg Adds Corporate & Securities Partner Chadwick A. Hoyt

Chadwick A. Hoyt has joined Neal Gerber Eisenberg as a partner in the Corporate & Securities practice group. Hoyt joins from Mayer Brown LLP, where he was a partner in the firm's banking & finance practice.

The firm said Hoyt's practice focuses on national and international structured finance transactions with an emphasis on mortgage-related transactions, particularly with the purchase, sale and securitizations of performing and non-performing residential and commercial mortgage loans and other real estate assets. Hoyt also represents clients in connection with warehouse, repurchase and other financing facilities.

Hoyt advises companies with servicing and origination agreements and assists them with the purchase, sale and financing of mortgage servicing rights. He also guides clients with respect to the funding and securitization of servicing advances assets such as auto loans and leases, franchise loans and charged-off credit card receivables. Hoyt has further experience in secured lending, leasing, leveraged leasing, and corporate transactions. the firm said in a release.

Hoyt received his J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School and his B.S. from the University of Iowa.
