

Opportune LLP Adds Randy Osterberg as Managing Director

Opportune LLP, a global provider of business advisory services to the energy industry, announced that Randy Osterberg has joined the firm as managing director.

In a release, the firm said Osterberg has more than 35 years of energy experience. His principal focus will be to drive client prospect generation, retention efforts and expand the firm's overall market brand.

His roles prior to joining Opportune include serving as a senior managing director with MUFG Union Bank's energy group where he led deal teams that acted as lead arranger and administrative agent on credit facilities for both large public independents and private equity-backed companies.

Osterberg began his career with First City National Bank of Houston, First Interstate Bank and NationsBank. Randy holds a B.B.A. in Finance from Texas A&M University.
