Private Client Services Partner Sharon Soloff Joins FisherBroyles in New York

Sharon B. Soloff has joined FisherBroyles, LLP as a partner in the firm's New York City office and Private Client Services, Trusts & Estates and Tax practice groups.

In a release, the firm said Soloff concentrates her practice on domestic and international gift, estate and tax planning for high net worth individuals and their families, including planning for owners of closely held businesses from inception through succession to future generations. She has a particular focus in the administration of large and complex estates, and represents fiduciaries in estate and gift tax audits. In addition, Soloff practices in the areas of art law and the law of charitable organizations.

Prior to joining FisherBroyles, Soloff served as special counsel at Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP. She also previously practiced at Withers Bergman LLP and Schulte Roth & Zabel LLP.

Soloff received her J.D., cum laude, Order of the Coif, from New York University School of Law, and her Bachelor of Arts, cum laude, from Harvard University. She also holds a Master of Social Work from New York University.
