

Charles H. Jackson III Joins Langley & Banack, Inc.

Langley & Banack, Inc. announced that Charles H. Jackson III joined the firm as of counsel in its San Antonio office. Jackson's practice concentrates on estate planning, probate, general and commercial business, and rural real estate.

Jackson holds a Juris Doctorate from the University of Texas Law School. He also served in the Army Reserves from 1964-1970.

"I joined Langley & Banack because of its depth of practice areas, the extensive experience of team members, the firm being client driven, and providing a high level of service," said Jackson.
