

Saxe Doernberger & Vita Hires 2 Associates

Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. announced that associates Larissa A. Branes and Sarah M. Borrelli have joined the firm's SDV West Coast office.

In a release, the firm said Branes has focused on complex commercial and residential real estate matters and complex secured nonconventional lending. She also has experience in discovery and motion practice as well as settlement negotiations, mediations and arbitrations, trials and appellate practice.

Borrelli was an elementary school teacher in Arizona, having earned a Master of Education, before switching careers and attending law school, where she served on California Western Law Review and was the Executive Editor of Notes and Comments for the International Law Journal.