

SDV Hires Kerianne Kane as Associate

Kerianne Kane has joined Northeast office of Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. (SDV) as an associate.

In a release, the firm said Kane has a background in state and federal litigation and a practice previously focused on issues involving Metro-North Railroad. Her experience includes defense of claims under the Federal Employers' Liability Act and whistleblower complaints under the Federal Railroad Safety Act as well as defense of insureds in personal injury and property damage matters.

The firm said Kane is also experienced in complex litigation matters involving business disputes, securities fraud and intellectual property infringement.
