

Stacie Tobin Named Partner-in-Charge of Venable's Baltimore Office

Venable LLP announced that Stacie E. Tobin, a partner in the Commercial Litigation Practice, has been named partner-in-charge of the Baltimore office.

The firm said Tobin has litigation experience spanning a diverse range of matters and has tried dozens of cases to verdict while serving as first-chair counsel or co-counsel before federal and state courts across the United States. She represents companies, manufacturers, and financial services clients as part of her commercial litigation practice. She has also counseled heavy equipment manufacturers, automobile and watercraft manufacturers, pharmaceutical companies, and tobacco companies in product liability disputes.

Tobin leads Venable's Electronic Discovery Task Force and the women's affinity group for the Maryland offices; she also serves on several Venable committees related to attorney recruitment, promotion, and compensation. She has served on the boards of numerous nonprofit and civic organizations, including Special Olympics Maryland, Live Baltimore, Executive Alliance, and the Greater Baltimore Cultural Alliance. She is a 2016 graduate of the GBC LEADERShip program. She has been recognized by Best Lawyers for Commercial Litigation (2013-2020); Best Lawyers Business Edition's Women in Law for Commercial Litigation (2017-2019); The Daily Record in its Maryland's Top 100 Women list (2019), and by the Girl Scouts of Central Maryland for its Distinguished Women's Award (2018).
