

Stroock Taps Laura Besvinick to Lead Miami Office

Stroock has named Laura Besvinick, an insurance litigation partner with more than 30 years of experience, as managing partner of its Miami office.

The firm said Besvinick's practice focuses on the representation of insurers in bad faith actions, complex coverage disputes and consumer class actions. She also advises insurers on claims-handling and bad faith issues.

She received her J.D., cum laude, from Harvard Law School, where she was an editor of the Harvard Law Review, and her A.B. from Harvard-Radcliffe College.
