

Trial Attorney Majed Nachawati Named Among Dallas' Best Lawyers

Trial attorney Majed Nachawati has been selected to the 2019 list of the Best Lawyers in Dallas by D Magazine based on his work in mass tort litigation. This is the fourth year the co-founding partner of Fears Nachawati Law Firm has made the list.

In a release, the firm said Nachawati has represented individuals, businesses and public entities in high-stakes litigation that includes defective drugs and medical devices. Most recently, he won a $3 million verdict for a woman who suffered complications from an intravenous blood filter in a case that marked the first time a jury reached a finding that the filters were defective. He also handles matters involving environmental and antitrust matters, as well as serious personal injury and wrongful death cases.

"Recognition on a list of the best lawyers in Dallas is a tremendous honor given the deep talent pool here," said Mr. Nachawati. "Having a nationally focused practice, I have worked with and against the best and am fully aware that North Texas has some of the top lawyers in the country."

Nachawati also has been recognized regularly by Super Lawyers magazine, first as a young lawyer on the Texas Rising Stars list and later among the Texas Super Lawyers ranks.

Nachawati serves on the Dallas Bar Association's Lawyer Referral Service Committee. He also is a member of the DBA's Legal Ethics Committee and serves as District Chairman for District 6 of the State Bar of Texas Grievance Committee.

In addition, he serves on the Public Justice Board of Directors and the Texas Trial Lawyers Association Board of Directors. He is a member of the Dallas Trial Lawyers Association and the American Association for Justice's Leaders Forum. He is a member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum.
