

Webinar: Survey Says Executive Pay Incentives Matter, but the Devil is in the Details

Pearl Meyer and the National Association of Corporate Directors will present a complimentary Nov. 10 webcast to review key findings and analysis from research into executive pay practices and offer guidance on select actions that should be considered for 2017 plans and Q1 bonus payouts.

The webinar will be Thursday, Nov. 10, 2-3 p.m. EST.

Pearl Meyer's annual fall survey of senior executives and compensation committee members, Pearl Meyer On Point: Looking Ahead to Executive Pay Practices in 2017, looks into pay level expectations and potential changes to annual and long-term incentive plans, as well as respondents' opinion on various Dodd-Frank provisions affecting compensation.

Webinar presenters will be:

Howard Brownstein (moderator) is president and founder of The Brownstein Corp., a nationally-known turnaround-management firm. He regularly serves as an independent director and currently chairs the audit committee of PICO Holdings Inc., and also chairs the nominating and governance and the strategic planning and risk assessment committees of P&F Industries Inc.

David Seitz is a managing director with Pearl Meyer, located in Dallas and affiliated with the firm's Houston office. He has nearly 30 years' experience in compensation consulting and particular expertise in long-term incentive plan design. Additional areas of concentration include director compensation, performance metrics, and total compensation strategy, among others.
