Transcript Available: Former SEC Chair White Speaks at Securities Regulation Institute

Thomson Reuters Practical Law developed a legal update containing the full transcript of the keynote address given by Mary Jo White, former Chair of the Securities and Exchange Commssion, at Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law's 44th Annual Securities Regulation Institute.

She began her address with a brief look back over her tenure at the SEC, the agency's effort to evolve with market technology, evolution with new financial products, evolving with new paths to capital formation, pursuingn strong enforcement and examinations, and a look at the SEC going forward.

Read the transcript.

Join Our LinkedIn Group