

Sexual Harassment Roundtable: Practical Guidance for Employers

Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory U.S. announced that registration is open for a relevant and timely webinar to provide employers with practical guidance on sexual harassment policies.

The 60-minute webinar, titled “Sexual Harassment Roundtable: Practical Guidance for Employers,” will be Thursday, March 1, 2018, beginning at 1 p.m. EST.

The event will feature experts from law firms in employment and labor law.

Topics will include:

- Why sexual harassment remains a persistent workplace problem
- The types of sexual harassment allegations that can be trickiest for employers
- Pros and cons of using nondisclosure clauses in settlement agreements
- How mandatory arbitration impacts sexual harassment claims
- Best practices for preventing sexual harassment and handling allegations when they do arise

Register for the webinar.