

Zapproved Presents Webinar, 'Stories of Bringing E-Discovery In-House'

Zapproved Inc., a developer of cloud-based software for corporate legal departments, announced it will present the webinar, "Stories of Bringing E-Discovery In-House," on Dec. 6, 2016.

In a news release, the company said this special event will offer strategic and practical tips to help corporate legal teams bring more of their e-discovery processes in-house. Guests will hear success stories from experts and learn ways to gain control over their processes, improve efficiency, and reduce risk for their organizations.

The company's release continues:

Event description

Corporate legal teams are under constant pressure to do more with less. These in-house teams must now lead the charge in implementing initiatives aimed at reducing cost while mitigating risk. To be successful, they often turn to new technologies and electronic discovery processes that allow them to bring legal preservation and e-discovery work in-house.

Join this complimentary webcast that will include stories from three leading in-house legal professionals. They will discuss why and how they decided to move much of their electronic discovery functions inside the company, including preservation, collection, and processing. You will also learn:

- How to prepare for bringing e-discovery in-house

- How to define success and set expectations
- The pitfalls you need to avoid when moving forward

As an attendee, you will receive a series of whitepapers called, "In-House Elevated," filled with inspiring and educational insights about the journey of bringing more e-discovery work in-house.

Speakers

- Jack Thompson, Sr. Manager, eDiscovery & Legal Operations, Sanofi US
- Becki Bottemiller, Specialist, Paralegal, Portland General Electric
- Wendy Riggs, Senior Manager, eDiscovery and Litigation Operations, Twitter, Inc.
- Jennifer Bantelman, Sr. Director of Product Management, Zapproved, Inc.
