

Freeborn Partner Lawrence Ingram Joins International Association of Defense Counsel

Freeborn & Peters LLP announced that Lawrence P. Ingram, managing partner of the firm's Tampa office, has accepted an invitation to join the International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC), an invitation-only global legal organization for attorneys who represent corporate and insurance interests.

The firm said Ingram is a member of Freeborn's Litigation Practice Group and Insurance and Reinsurance Industry Team. He concentrates his trial practice in professional business disputes involving trade secrets and restrictive covenants, professional liability defense, third-party insurance coverage, qui tam, and health care fraud. He has experience in litigation and resulting trials arising from professional business disputes involving restrictive covenant/trade secret cases. In the area of professional liability, Ingram's practice focuses on the litigation and trial defense of professional malpractice claims against insurance agents and attorneys.

Founded in 1920, the IADC has members who hail from six continents, 51 countries and territories, and all 50 U.S. states. The core purposes of the IADC are to enhance the development of skills, promote professionalism, and facilitate camaraderie among its members and their clients, as well as the broader civil justice community.
