Frost Brown Todd Adds Insurance Attorney Michele Levinson as Partner

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) has added Michele Levinson as a partner in its Product, Tort, and Insurance Litigation practice group in Los Angeles, California.

Levinson brings a wealth of experience representing insurers, nonprofits, and public entities in various legal matters. Her expertise spans automobile claims, first-party property, insurance bad faith litigation, personal injury defense, subrogation, and examinations under oath. She has also handled business and probate disputes, general tort liability, and labor and employment discrimination cases. Levinson has appeared before California state courts, the California Courts of Appeal, and the U.S. District Courts for the Central, Eastern, and Southern Districts of California.

“Michele’s broad expertise in complex insurance matters significantly enhances our team,” said Jeremiah Byrne, Chair of FBT’s Product, Tort, & Insurance Litigation Practice Group. “Her extensive experience defending clients in both public and private sector litigation makes her an invaluable resource for organizations facing California’s evolving risk challenges.”

Before attending law school, Levinson gained industry experience as a senior claims examiner for Safeco, a Liberty Mutual company, and as a claims examiner for the 21st Century, which is now part of Farmers Insurance Company.

“I’m excited to join Frost Brown Todd’s national platform and leverage its robust litigation capabilities to grow my practice further,” Levinson said. “I look forward to continuing to provide results-oriented counsel across a wide range of insurance and litigation matters.”

Levinson holds a bachelor’s degree from California State University, Northridge, and a Juris Doctor from Southwestern University School of Law. She has also served on the Board of Directors for the Southern California Chapter of the International Association of Special Investigative Units.
